

Agnus Dei (Hymnal # 712)

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world

Have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world

Have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world

Grant us thy peace.

Prayer of Humble Access

Prayer Book p. 82

Priest. BEHOLD the Lamb of God; behold him that taketh away the sins of the world. Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof;

Answer. But speak the word only, and my soul shall be healed.

Devotions following Communion:

(These prayers should be said by the congregation with the celebrant)

O LORD, most glorious Lamb of God, most tender priest of man, we praise and glorify Thee for the blessed Sacrament of Thy Body and Blood, wherein thy servants celebrate the mystery of Thy redeeming love and partake of Thy spotless and immortal life; and we beseech Thee that by these gifts we may be made holy, and have our portion and inheritance among the blessed who have pleased Thee from the beginning of the world; to whom with the Father and the Holy Spirit be glory and dominion world without end. Amen.

WE adore Thee, O God, and with our whole heart bless Thee, who dost sustain and renew us with the communion of the most holy Body and Blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ, the utmost glory of Thy love, the very seal of our redemption, and the wonder of our souls; and we beseech Thee, that He may abide in us, speaking grace and peace to our lives, until we be possessed of everlasting life in Him; to whom with Thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, be glory and worship world without end. Amen.

The Epistle: I Corinthians 11:23      Prayer Book 152

I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

The Gospel: St. John 13:1      Prayer Book 155

NOW before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him; Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; he riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself. After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.
